

Educational Theatre Programs

presents... 'Secrets'

(an AIDS awareness performance)

Concerned about the increase of HIV/AIDS in the U.S., Kaiser Permanente presents 'Secrets,' an AIDS education program that speaks to people of all ages by using music, humor and emotional drama. The production uses real situations based on true stories to personalize the problems of the AIDS epidemic.

Following each performance of 'Secrets,' a Q&A session is offered to provide audiences with answers to additional questions they may have about the disease. Since it was introduced, Kaiser Permanente has presented 'Secrets' to local schools, youth groups, public health departments, churches, youth detention centers and other community-based organizations.

Show specifics:

- This show is recommended for high school students and adult audiences. Two shows per day can be performed to accommodate your school or facility.
- 'Secrets' lasts approximately 45 minutes with a 15-30 minute Q&A session and requires 1.5 hours for set-up and 1 hour for break-down
- Evening shows are available Monday - Wednesday
- A performance space of 20" x 20" and an electrical outlet is needed

For more information or to book a performance, contact Kaiser Permanente Educational Theatre Programs at (770) 496-3749.

Visit our website: xnet.kp.org/qa/etp/